SHE'S THE VIBE

The 5-Minute Morning Reset

No boring mornings allowed.

Five minutes. Five tiny rituals. A whole different day.

Before the World Gets a Vote

Mornings set the tone — but let's be real, nobody has an hour (and if you do, please teach me your ways). This little ritual takes five minutes and meets you exactly where you are: half-awake, coffee in hand, already mentally reorganizing your entire life. Print it, tape it to your mirror, keep it by your bed — and give yourself five sparkly minutes before the world gets a vote.

1 Minute One

BREATHE

Close your eyes, gorgeous. Inhale for 4 counts, hold for 4, exhale for 6 — like you're blowing out birthday candles, but make it healing. Do it 3 times. You're not behind. You're right here, and right here is perfect.

How's the breath feeling? (tight / shallow / easy / main-character energy):

2 Minute Two

INTENTION

Set ONE intention for today. Not a to-do list — a whole vibe. Whisper it like a spell: "Today I move slowly." "Today I choose peace over proving." Feel how good that feels?

Today, I choose to be:

3 Minute Three

GRATITUDE

Name 3 things you're grateful for. Small counts! Coffee counts. Cute socks count. Breathing DEFINITELY counts. Pick one and let yourself actually FEEL it for like, 10 whole seconds.

1. 2. 3. (my faves!)

4 Minute Four

BODY CHECK

Do a little scan, head to toe, like you're checking in on a dear friend (because you are — it's you). Where's the tension hiding? Shoulders? Jaw? Stomach? Breathe right into that spot and soften it just 10%. Baby steps, babe.

Nobody told me:

5 Minute Five

TODAY'S VIBE

Pick your vibe for the day. ONE word. Write it BIG and underline it twice. This is your North Star now — let it pick the playlist, the outfit, the energy you walk in with. Main character behavior only.

Today's vibe (make it iconic):

You Chose Yourself First

Five minutes. That's it. That's the whole vibe. You just chose yourself before the chaos chose you — go ahead and take a bow for that. Tape this to your mirror, screenshot it, make it your lock screen. And when you're ready to go deeper, the She's The Vibe journals and a free 20-minute Vibe Session are waiting for you at shesthevibe.co. You did that.
