SHE'S THE VIBE

The 5-Minute Morning Reset

Start grounded. Stay you.

Five minutes. Five steps. A whole different day.

Mornings set the tone — but nobody has an hour. This reset takes five minutes and meets you where you are: half-awake, coffee in hand, already thinking about everything. Print it, keep it by your bed, and give yourself five minutes before the world gets a vote.

MINUTE 1 — BREATHE

Close your eyes. Inhale for 4 counts, hold for 4, exhale for 6. Do it 3 times. You're not behind. You're right here.

How does your breath feel right now? (tight / shallow / easy):

MINUTE 2 — INTENTION

Set ONE intention for today. Not a to-do list — a way of being. "Today I will move slowly." "Today I choose peace over proving."

My intention for today:

MINUTE 3 — GRATITUDE

Name 3 things you're grateful for. Small counts. Coffee counts. Breathing counts. Let yourself actually feel one of them.

1. 2. 3.

MINUTE 4 — BODY CHECK

Scan from head to toe. Where are you holding tension? Shoulders? Jaw? Stomach? Breathe into that spot. Soften it just 10%.

What I noticed in my body:

MINUTE 5 — TODAY'S VIBE

Pick your vibe for the day. One word. Write it big. Let it guide your choices — the music, the outfit, the energy you bring.

Today's vibe (one word):

Five minutes. You chose yourself first today — that's the whole vibe. Tape this to your mirror, screenshot it, make it your lock screen. And when you're ready for deeper work, the She's The Vibe journals and a free 20-minute Vibe Session are waiting at shesthevibe.co.
