PERMISSION

Your practice does not have to look impressive to be meaningful. You may question, revise, pause or leave an experience unresolved.

Inside Read the Energy

Fifty-seven intentional pages for spiritual reflection, gentle spellwork, divination, crystal work, cleansing and personal ritual.

1

FOUNDATIONS

2-10

Beliefs, boundaries, discernment, baseline and tools.

2

EVERYDAY MAGIC

11-17

Spellwork basics, ingredients, colors, weekdays and easy practices.

3

CLEANSING + GROUNDING

18-24

Safe cleansing choices, space resets, protection and regulation.

4

CRYSTALS + DIVINATION

25-45

Crystal work, tarot, oracle, spreads, meanings, ethics and follow-up.

5

RITUAL + RHYTHM

46-57

Moon work, ritual records, sacred space, signs, study and review.

BUILT TO REUSE

Duplicate the reading, cleansing, crystal and ritual pages whenever you need another entry. Use only the sections that fit your practice.

Welcome to Read the Energy

A spiritual journal with room for intuition, curiosity, context and grounded judgment.

THE HEART OF THIS JOURNAL

Spiritual practice can help you reflect, focus and create meaning. This journal will not tell you what to believe. It helps you record what you observed, what you felt and what you think it may mean.

1 Personal meaning first

A card, crystal, symbol or ritual can hold different meaning across people and traditions.

2 Discernment stays on

Intuition can sit beside evidence, consent, practical judgment and professional advice.

3 Practice without fear

You do not need threats, panic or perfection to create a meaningful spiritual rhythm.

4 Respect the source

Learn the cultural and historical roots of practices, tools and traditions you choose to use.

CARE NOTE

This journal is for reflection and personal practice. It does not replace medical, mental-health, legal, financial or safety advice. Use qualified professional support for high-stakes decisions or persistent distress.

How to Use This Journal

Choose the smallest page that supports the moment. A complete practice does not require completing every section.

1Arrive

Notice your body, mood, expectations and environment before using a tool.

2Ask

Use an open, specific question that leaves room for choice and complexity.

3Observe

Record what appeared before reaching for a guidebook or outside interpretation.

4Interpret

Combine personal associations, context, tradition and uncertainty.

5Integrate

Choose a practical next step, a question to revisit or permission to do nothing.

A USEFUL RULE

Record first. Research second. Decide last. This preserves your first impression without requiring it to be your final conclusion.

Four Layers of Spiritual Reflection

Separate the experience from the meaning you give it so intuition and discernment can work together.

1. OBSERVED

What literally happened, appeared or changed?

2. FELT

What emotions, body sensations or energetic impressions did I notice?

3. INTERPRETED

What personal, symbolic or traditional meaning feels possible?

4. INTEGRATED

What grounded action, boundary or question will I carry forward?

KEEP UNCERTAINTY VISIBLE

Try language such as: I noticed, I associated, this may connect to, one possibility is, or I want to revisit.

My Beliefs, Questions + Boundaries

Name what you believe now, what remains uncertain and what keeps your practice supportive.

PRACTICE 2

Everyday Magic

Gentle Spellwork Foundations

Spellwork can be a focused blend of intention, symbolism and ordinary action. Keep it simple, safe and connected to real life.

1 Name the intention

Choose one clear feeling, quality or direction: peace, confidence, focus, courage or release.

2 Choose a symbol

Use a color, plant, spice, object, word or gesture that carries meaning for you.

3 Add real-world action

Pair the ritual with something within your control: send the email, make the plan or hold the boundary.

4 Close + clean up

End clearly, extinguish flame, store ingredients safely and let the work be complete.

MAGIC WITHOUT PRESSURE

A ritual may help you focus, regulate, remember or mark a change. It does not guarantee an outcome or control another person's choices.

WHAT GENTLE SPELLWORK MEANS TO ME

Flowers, Herbs + Green Allies

Common symbolic associations are starting points, not universal rules. Your memories, culture and actual relationship with a plant matter too.

PLANT	COMMON INTENTIONS
Rose	Love, tenderness, beauty, self-respect
Lavender	Calm, rest, peace, gentle cleansing
Rosemary	Clarity, remembrance, protection, focus
Basil	Prosperity, home harmony, confidence
Mint	Freshness, energy, communication, renewal
Chamomile	Ease, comfort, luck, peaceful rest
Bay leaf	Intention, success, wisdom, direction
Sunflower	Joy, visibility, confidence, warmth
Jasmine	Dreams, intuition, sweetness, romance
Pine	Renewal, resilience, home protection
Oak	Strength, stability, endurance, legacy
Pothos / ivy	Growth, persistence, connection, adaptability

PLANT SAFETY

Do not ingest, burn, apply or diffuse a plant unless you have verified it is safe for the exact person, pet and use. Garden sage is not the same as culturally specific ceremonial practices.

Spices + Everyday Ingredients

Your kitchen already holds useful symbols. Keep ingredients contained, label nonfood ritual items and never assume natural means harmless.

INGREDIENT	COMMON INTENTIONS
Salt	Boundaries, cleansing, preservation, grounding
Sugar	Sweetness, kindness, ease, friendship
Honey	Attraction, cooperation, warmth, patience
Cinnamon	Momentum, confidence, prosperity, warmth
Clove	Protection, focus, courage, firm boundaries
Ginger	Action, motivation, courage, energy
Black pepper	Decisiveness, boundary work, clearing
Coffee	Focus, speed, energy, wakefulness
Rice / oats	Abundance, stability, nourishment, home
Lemon	Clarity, freshness, cleansing, optimism
Orange	Joy, creativity, confidence, success
Apple / vanilla	Love, comfort, sweetness, home

USE WITH CARE

Cinnamon, pepper, citrus, oils and herbs can irritate skin, lungs and pets. Do not blow powders into flame, leave food to mold or scatter salt and spices where animals or wildlife can reach them.

Color + Candle Correspondences

Use color through candles, fabric, pens, flowers, clothing or a phone background. An LED candle counts when flame is not safe.

COLOR	COMMON INTENTIONS
Red	Courage, vitality, passion, action
Pink	Self-love, tenderness, friendship, care
Orange	Creativity, confidence, momentum, joy
Yellow	Clarity, study, optimism, communication
Green	Growth, abundance, balance, home
Blue	Peace, truth, calm, expression
Purple	Intuition, wisdom, spiritual study
White	Clarity, fresh starts, all-purpose intention
Black	Boundaries, protection, closure - not evil
Brown	Stability, grounding, home, practical support
Gold	Confidence, success, warmth, visibility
Silver	Reflection, dreams, intuition, cycles

CANDLE SAFETY

Use a stable holder on a heat-safe surface, trim the wick and stay in the room. Keep flame away from children, pets, loose herbs, powders, curtains and airflow. LED candles are a valid substitute.

Days of the Week

Many modern correspondence systems connect each day with a planetary theme. Use the day as supportive timing, never as a rule that blocks you from beginning.

DAY	PLANET	COMMONLY CHOSEN FOR
Sunday	Sun	Confidence, joy, visibility, creativity, success
Monday	Moon	Rest, intuition, emotions, dreams, home
Tuesday	Mars	Courage, action, motivation, boundaries
Wednesday	Mercury	Communication, study, planning, travel
Thursday	Jupiter	Growth, opportunity, prosperity, generosity
Friday	Venus	Self-love, beauty, art, friendship, romance
Saturday	Saturn	Discipline, protection, endings, structure
THE DAYS THAT FEEL MOST SUPPORTIVE IN MY REAL SCHEDULE

TIMING SHOULD HELP

If Friday is traditional for love work but Tuesday is when you have privacy and energy, Tuesday is the better day for you.

Easy Everyday Spellwork

Small practices for cute, calm, real-life magic. Adjust the ingredients, skip flame and pair each ritual with an ordinary action.

1 PEACE POCKET

Place a written calming word with dried lavender or chamomile in a sealed pouch. Pair it with three slow breaths.

2 CONFIDENCE LIGHT

Choose pink, orange or gold light. Name one quality you trust in yourself, then take one visible action.

3 FOCUS DESK RESET

Clear one surface. Add a yellow or blue object and a sprig of rosemary. Write the single task that matters most.

4 ABUNDANCE BOWL

Place a coin, dry rice and a written goal in a contained bowl. Add the next practical money or career step.

5 SWEETEN THE DAY

Stir sugar, honey or cinnamon into a safe drink while naming how you want to treat yourself and others.

6 DOORWAY BOUNDARY

Clean the threshold, place a contained symbol nearby and say what is welcome in your space and what is not.

MAKE IT YOURS

Substitute what is safe and available. Symbolism is allowed to be pretty, playful and personal without becoming complicated or fear-based.

PRACTICE ₃
Cleansing +
Grounding

Cleansing Without Fear

Cleansing can be a sensory reset, a spiritual ritual or both. Use it to support intention - not to create panic about invisible danger.

1 Name the purpose

Reset after conflict, mark a transition, refresh a room or prepare for practice.

2 Choose the method

Match the method to your beliefs, home, body, pets and available time.

3 Clean physically too

Open a window, remove clutter or wipe a surface when that is what the space needs.

4 Close clearly

Name what is complete, dispose of materials safely and return to ordinary life.

SAFETY BEFORE SYMBOLISM

Avoid smoke around respiratory conditions, children and sensitive pets. Never leave flame unattended. Confirm that herbs, oils, salts, water and smoke are safe for the people, animals and surfaces involved.

WHAT CLEANSING MEANS IN MY PRACTICE

Choose a Cleansing Method

Select a method that fits the moment. You do not need smoke, expensive tools or a complicated ritual.

1 AIR + LIGHT

Fresh air, sunlight, visualization or moving through the space with intention.

2 SOUND

Clapping, bells, music, humming, prayer or spoken words.

3 PHYSICAL RESET

Tidying, sweeping, washing, changing linens or removing stale items.

4 WATER

A shower, handwashing, mist or surface-safe wipe. Protect water-sensitive items.

5 SMOKE + SCENT

Only with ventilation and safe materials; skip when bodies, pets or rules require it.

6 REST + BOUNDARY

Sometimes the reset is closing a door, turning off a device or saying no.

CULTURAL RESPECT

If a method comes from a living cultural or religious tradition, learn its source and avoid treating a sacred practice as an aesthetic shortcut.

Cleansing Ritual Log

Record what you actually did and how the space felt afterward without forcing a dramatic result.

PRACTICE 4
Crystals +
Divination

Crystal Foundations + Safety

Use crystals as symbolic, sensory or spiritual tools while respecting their physical properties and the limits of health claims.

1 Know the material

Some stones contain toxic elements, shed fibers, dissolve in water or react to salt, heat and sunlight.

2 Skip crystal elixirs

Do not ingest crystals or soak unknown stones in drinking water. Use an indirect setup if desired.

3 Protect people + pets

Keep small, sharp, fragile or toxic stones away from children and animals.

4 Keep care in its lane

Crystals may support ritual or comfort; they do not diagnose, treat or replace healthcare.

WHY I WANT TO INCLUDE CRYSTALS IN MY PRACTICE

MY STORAGE AND SAFETY PLAN

My Crystal Collection

Track what you own, why you chose it and the care information you have verified.

STONE	SOURCE	PERSONAL MEANING	HOW I USE IT	CARE LIMITS	ADDED

VERIFY CARE

When you are unsure, keep the stone dry, out of salt and away from prolonged direct sunlight until you confirm its properties from a reliable mineral source.

Crystal Profile

Study one stone through observation, research, personal association and actual experience.

Simple Tarot Spreads

Choose the smallest spread that can hold the question. More cards do not automatically create a clearer answer.

One Card

A focus, message, energy or next step.

Two Cards

Try situation + support, option A + option B, or me + the dynamic.

Three Cards

Past + present + next. Situation + challenge + support. Mind + body + spirit.

Five Cards

Center issue with root, tension, support and next step around it.

NAME POSITIONS FIRST

Decide what each position means before turning the cards over. This keeps the spread from changing shape merely to fit the answer you hoped to receive.

A SPREAD I WANT TO TRY OR CREATE

How to Read the Cards Together

Read each card clearly, then let the spread become a sentence instead of a pile of isolated definitions.

1 Start with the position

Ask what job this card is doing in the spread before deciding what it means.

2 Notice before researching

Record the image, color, figure, direction and feeling that catches your attention first.

3 Use the base meaning

Add the card's traditional theme, suit, number or court role as a starting point.

4 Connect the cards

Look for repeated suits, numbers, colors, figures, movement, contrast and cause-and-effect.

5 Tell the simplest story

Read left to right or from the center outward: what is happening, what complicates it and what helps?

6 Return to the question

End with a choice, boundary, practical action or question - not a dramatic prediction.

REVERSALS ARE OPTIONAL

If you use reversed cards, try blocked, internal, delayed, excessive or underused energy before treating the reversal as the opposite or as automatically negative.

Major Arcana at a Glance

These keywords are doors, not definitions carved in stone. Let the artwork, position, question and your own experience shape the final meaning.

CARD	STARTING MEANING	CARD	STARTING MEANING
0 Fool	Beginning, openness, leap	XI Justice	Truth, balance, accountability
I Magician	Skill, will, available tools	XII Hanged Man	Pause, surrender, new view
II High Priestess	Intuition, mystery, inner knowing	XIII Death	Ending, transition, transformation
III Empress	Nurture, creativity, abundance	XIV Temperance	Balance, blending, moderation
IV Emperor	Structure, authority, stability	XV Devil	Attachment, temptation, power patterns
V Hierophant	Tradition, teaching, shared belief	XVI Tower	Disruption, revelation, rebuild
VI Lovers	Values, choice, connection	XVII Star	Hope, renewal, inspiration
VII Chariot	Direction, discipline, momentum	XVIII Moon	Uncertainty, dreams, intuition
VIII Strength	Courage, patience, inner power	XIX Sun	Joy, clarity, vitality
IX Hermit	Solitude, search, wisdom	XX Judgement	Awakening, review, calling
X Wheel	Cycles, change, timing	XXI World	Completion, integration, wholeness

MAJOR ARCANA I UNDERSTAND DIFFERENTLY OR WANT TO STUDY

My association, deck imagery or lived connection

Minor Arcana at a Glance

Combine the suit with the number or court role, then adjust the meaning to the position, artwork and question.

SUIT	ELEMENT	COMMON TERRITORY
Wands	Fire	Action, desire, creativity, ambition
Cups	Water	Emotion, relationships, intuition, connection
Swords	Air	Thought, communication, conflict, truth
Pentacles	Earth	Body, work, money, home, material life

Number Pattern

Ace	Seed / opportunity	6	Support / adjustment
2	Choice / balance	7	Challenge / assessment
3	Growth / collaboration	8	Movement / skill
4	Stability / rest	9	Endurance / culmination
5	Disruption / change	10	Completion / transition

Court Roles

Page	Learning / message
Knight	Pursuit / action
Queen	Inner mastery
King	Outer direction

A QUICK FORMULA

Three of Cups may begin as growth + relationships; Eight of Pentacles as skill + work; Queen of Swords as inner mastery + clear thought. Then let the actual card and question make it specific.

MY SUIT, NUMBER OR COURT ASSOCIATIONS

Reading Foundations

A reading is a reflective conversation with symbols - not a guarantee, command or substitute for informed decision-making.

1 Ask open questions

Try: What should I understand? What supports me? What am I overlooking?

2 Read what is present

Notice imagery, position, pattern and response before forcing a familiar meaning.

3 Keep choice visible

Cards can support reflection without removing agency or practical responsibility.

4 Return for evidence

Revisit the reading later and compare the message with what actually unfolded.

Reading Ethics + Consent

Build a practice that protects privacy, agency and honest limits - especially when reading for someone else.

1 Consent

The person knows what the reading involves and can stop or decline.

2 Privacy

Personal information and reading details are not shared without permission.

3 Agency

Avoid commands, certainty and language that makes a person dependent on the reader.

4 Scope

Do not replace medical, legal, financial, mental-health or safety expertise.

5 Third parties

Avoid invasive claims about people who are absent and did not consent.

6 Honesty

Say when you are unsure, emotionally invested, inexperienced or unable to read fairly.

Moon Cycle Overview

Use lunar phases as optional timing cues. You never have to wait for a phase when your real life says the time is now.

PHASE	COMMONLY CHOSEN FOR
New moon	Rest, listen, set intentions, begin quietly
Waxing crescent	Gather resources, nurture a plan, build confidence
First quarter	Take action, meet resistance, make decisions
Waxing gibbous	Refine, practice, adjust, strengthen momentum
Full moon	Illuminate, celebrate, notice results, express gratitude
Waning gibbous	Share, integrate, give thanks, distribute wisdom
Last quarter	Release, edit, forgive, break an old pattern
Waning crescent	Rest, cleanse, close, prepare for renewal

HOW I WANT TO USE MOON TIMING - IF AT ALL

USE THE ENERGY, NOT THE PRESSURE

Moon timing is a framework, not a deadline. Your safety, schedule, body and actual readiness come first.
